is a mistake to consider catarrh merely a local trouble. It is unquestionably a disease of the blood.

water in a reservoir breaks through the bank at the weakest point, so the catarrhal poison in the bowels discharges where there is the least resistance. The discharge will be at the head, or the bowels, or at another point where the mucous membrane is found. Diarrhoea and dysentery are but a festation of catarrh of the bowels.

The efforts to clear my head in the morning by yawning and spitting was painful. Hood's Sarsaparilla gave me relief immediately, while in time I was entirely cured. I am never without the medicine in the house.

A TERRIBLE CRIME.

A young woman hurled Two Children From a Bridge 65 Feet High.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 1.—One of the most terrible murders ever known in the history of Erie County was committed at Akron, twenty-four miles east of this city, last night. A young woman, Nellie May Kamssey, aged 19, formerly living in Buffalo, but lately residing with Mrs. Patrick Brown in Akron, ended Deila Brown, aged 6 years, and Nellie May Kamssey, aged 10, on the Akron Cement Works Narrow-gauge Railroad bridge, 65 feet 65 feet, over Marder Creek. All of a sudden the young woman rushed to the side of the bridge, and then grabbed Nellie May Kamssey, hurled her into the precipice below. Nellie was instantly killed, but fortunately Miss Deila Brown lives to tell the terrible tale as related. Her little arms and legs are broken, William Bruce Stewart, in whose house she was arrested, is a resident of 1001 West 10th street, St. Louis, 24 years of age, who claims a job at Troy, N. Y., was seized with an attempt to flee from the police. He was arrested and is being held at the County Hospital at Belleville this morning.

President F. S. Johnson and Secretary George B. Shreve of the St. Louis Y. M. C. A. will confer with the police department this morning at 10 o'clock to-morrow. The services will be held at the late Edwin Brown.

Charles J. McGee, a 25-year-old, to-day charged with complicity in the larceny of a chain from Mr. W. Watson, and was arrested at 10 o'clock this morning at 10th and Bunsen.

William J. Guligan of the Police Department, 229 arrests made by the East St. police force during the month of October.

John J. Roberts, a switchman of the Mobile and Ohio road, attempted to jump from a moving freight car at 10th and Bunsen this morning. His right leg was amputated.

and although terribly bruised it is thought he will recover. Last night the citizens of Akron were on the streets for the first time since about 2 o'clock this morning. Several hours after Delta had laid on the stones at the side of the creek unable to move. She said to Constable Burns that Sarah had hard work in pushing Nellie Connors over the side of the bridge and came very close to falling.

After committing the act Sarah McMillen returned to Mr. Brown's house and said to Mr. Brown: "I am going away. Perhaps you will not see me again," at the same time extending her hand. Mrs. Brown thought she was feeling, when Sarah again spoke up: "Well, if you won't shake hands with me, all right, I'll go."

Her actions excited the curiosity of the family. Sarah started for the bridge over the mill dam at Akron about 10 feet high, and JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 1.—The convention is making heroic efforts to complete its work and adjourn to-night. All that remains to be done is to adopt the report of the Committee on Revision, which covers the entire Constitution and is embraced in a pamphlet of thirty-two pages. After the report is read and explained the resolutions will be ready to be adopted. It will probably take until midnight to accomplish this result.

A VICTORY FOR O'NEILL

THE SUPREME COURT KNOCKS OUT THE O'MALLEY MANDAMUS CASE.

No Further Doubt as to the Regularity of O'Neill's Nomination—Cobb's Friends Alarmed at Mr. Field's Candidacy in the Ninth District—After a Legislative Candidate—Political Notes.

It was no doubt existing as to the regularity of the nomination of ex-Congressman John J. O'Neill, that was dispelled this morning by the State Supreme Court. The decision of the court is that Mr. O'Neill has no claim whatever to the nomination and that Mr. O'Neill on the other hand is the choice of his party for Congress in the Ninth District.

The following telegram received at the Post-Dispatch office this morning briefly tells of the final disposition of O'Neill's mandamus proceeding:

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 1.—The State Supreme Court met this morning and Chief Justice Ray announced that the mandamus writ of mandamus asked for by Patrick O'Malley of the Eighth Congressional District, against the Secretary of State, to compel that official to receive and file his certificate as the regular Democratic nominee for Congress, was denied. No written opinion was handed down, and the Chief Justice stated that one would be written and filed later. This action of the court leaves Mr. O'Neill in possession of the field and insures his election. The court then adjourned Monday, Nov. 11.

THE NEWS RECEIVED IN THE CITY BETWEEN 10 AND 11 O'CLOCK WAS HIGHLY GRATIFYING TO THE DEMOCRATIC LEADERS. At the State Committee rooms the opinion was expressed that the decision of the court removed any doubt that might have been felt regarding Mr. O'Neill's election. The same opinion was expressed at the City Committee rooms and elsewhere.

Cobb's Friends Alarmed.

The retirement of Mr. John T. Field from the secretaryship of the Granite Mountain Mining Co. on account of his candidacy for Congress in the Ninth District on the Prohibition ticket is still the subject of much comment. Mr. Field and his friends insist that Cobb's political friends brought an influence to bear on the Granite Mountain directors which brought about his resignation.

MR. COBB'S DENIAL.

Speaking on this subject this morning, Mr. Cobb said: "I wish emphatically to deny the statement that there was any influence urged by the Merchants' Bridge or the Terminal Railway Co. in connection with my resignation. I want to state further that while a number of gentlemen connected with these companies are friendly to my candidacy, they have not expended a dollar that I know of or turned a hand in my behalf. When I heard the report that Mr. Field had been forced to resign the secretaryship of the Granite Mountain Co., and that the Granite Mountain directors had figured in the matter, I took the pains to make a thorough investigation of the entire circumstances. I learned positively that no person connected with the Merchants' Bridge or the Merchants' Terminal Railway Co. had moved in the premises, and that the Granite Mountain people assured me of the same. I will state with emphasis that I had no more to do with Mr. Field's leaving the secretaryship of the company than I have with the resignation of Mr. Field."

MR. FIELD WAS ASKED TO-day if he had any further statement to make concerning his resignation from the Granite Mountain office, and he replied that he had none. To his personal friends, who called on him during the day, he said that his chances of election had materially improved.

MR. FIELD'S FRIENDS are by no means convinced that Mr. Cobb's supporters do not take a hand in his resignation. They threaten to vote for Mr. Field regardless of the result. Mr. Cobb's leading supporters are alarmed at the action, fearing that Mr. Field will receive enough votes from his Democratic friends to make the result in the district very doubtful.

REPUBLICAN OPPOSITION TO RICHIEY.

A strong fight is being made on Frank Richiey, one of the Republican Labor Legislative candidates in the Fourth Representative District. Richiey resides in the Fourteenth Ward and was put on the ticket after Mr. Noxon had withdrawn. The opposition to Richiey is strong in the Fourth Ward and the leading Republican leaders are doing their best to draw him out. There was a very decided objection to this action, and the result was the nomination of Noxon instead of Richiey. Before this action was taken, Mr. Richiey had been elected the Republican Congressional candidate for the Fourteenth Ward and had been elected to the position of assistant manager of the Missouri Employers' Association, a position which he has held since his election. He is a man of high standing and has been a member of the Missouri Legislature for several years.

ILLINOIS POLITICS.

MARSHALL, Ill., Nov. 1.—The F. M. B. A. rally here to-day was the banner one of the campaign. There were twelve or fifteen more delegations with gaily decorated wagons and processions from the different lodges, and they all united in a grand parade marching through the principal streets of the city. The procession was led by a band, and carried several transparencies in the parade, the most suggestive being "Down With Treason and Monopoly." The parade did not indicate that the farmers were a down-trodden class, as they were not, but that they were a well-to-do class.

The addresses were this afternoon delivered by Rev. J. D. Reader, candidate for Congress and Rev. J. D. Reader, candidate for Congress and Rev. J. D. Reader, candidate for Congress.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It may be surprising, but nevertheless a fact, that owing to the large operations of the owners of Rose Hill subdivision, and the acquiring of property by the acre and subdividing the same into lots, they are enabled to sell at prices which are at least twenty-five per cent lower than that of property in the immediate vicinity.

Therefore, if you contemplate purchasing a lot for investment, or speculation, or securing a home site, do not fail to take advantage of the above opportunity and find out the price, terms, conditions and general facilities for reaching Rose Hill.

The property is located two blocks West of Union Avenue, one block South of Easton and one block North of Page Avenue. At present it is directly reached by the extension of the Easton Avenue Cable.

Our Agent is on the ground, at the branch office, from nine A.M. to six P.M. every day, till November 5; and will be pleased to give any information desired.

For Plats and prices, call upon

Dramatic Court Scene.

NEVADA, Mo., Nov. 1.—A highly dramatic court scene was witnessed here yesterday afternoon in the Probate Court-room. Habeas corpus proceedings had been instituted by Mrs. Della Jeffery for the possession of her 2-year-old baby boy, who was held by a hired nurse for a $100 board bill due. The mother had placed the child in the hands of a hired nurse, because so attached to the child that she refused to surrender it.

The evidence was presented to the mother's character, and Judge Gray decided that she was not a fit custodian of the child. The child was ordered to be left in Mrs. Jeffery's possession. The mother appeared to be utterly heartbroken by the decision. She had given voice to her grief in loud shrieks, and was with difficulty removed from the courtroom.

Increased Express Rates.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Furthest to the result of the meeting on Monday last, the increased tariff in express matter went into effect this morning. According to the managers of the various express companies, the result to raise the tariff was only arrived at after months of deliberation and delay.

The manager of the American company says that the increase is a necessary evil, but that those charged in 1888 and before. Put back to those charged in 1888 and before. Put back to those charged in 1888 and before.

DISAPPOINTED Republicans vote for John T. Field, the people's candidate for Congress.

THE COTTON CROP.

Regular Monthly Report from the Memphis District.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 1.—The regular monthly crop report for the Memphis District to be issued to-day, by H. L. Fontaine & Co., will say: "The weather during October has not been the most favorable. Excessive rains have fallen throughout the district, which greatly retarded picking."

The evidence was presented to the mother's character, and Judge Gray decided that she was not a fit custodian of the child. The child was ordered to be left in Mrs. Jeffery's possession.

The mother appeared to be utterly heartbroken by the decision. She had given voice to her grief in loud shrieks, and was with difficulty removed from the courtroom.
